number of sailors, headed by officers in the merchant service, did good work on the road eids by assisting the Hang-fah-loh people in pulling down all the sun-shades, sign-boards, and woodwork adjoining the fire

The sailors, however, who bad done such good service, were somewhat roughly driven away by the Police, who only arrived when the fire had already been got under. An attempt to get the nozzle of the Government

Engine bose up a ladder, to throw water down on the fire, signally failed, the bose being dropped from top to bottom of the ludder, sputtering water in all directions but the one ufter the fire broke out, and to him, the Hungfah-loh, people, and the suitors, the credit of baving put the fire out is due. The Hon. Mr.

May, Mr. Tonnochy, and Mr. Willcooks arrived afterwards, accompanied by a few volunteers and the Government Engines. The Hongkong Insurance Engine came to the spot, and was the most useful; but the bulk of the work in extinguishing the fire had been done before the
